

A Statement from
Yorkville Capital Management and Yorkville ETF Advisors

October 18, 2012 New York City, New York

This morning we became aware that an unrelated company, Yorkville Advisors LLC, based in Jersey City, New Jersey, has become the subject of an SEC investigation. We can assure you that Yorkville Capital Management and Yorkville ETF Advisors have absolutely no connection or business relationship whatsoever with this firm. We have similar names, but that is in no way an indication of any affiliation. We chose our name based on the New York City neighborhood where our office is located.
